

REGISTRATION DEADLINES FOR EACH TYPE OF RETURN

Type of return	Consultant lobbyist	Enterprise lobbyist and organization lobbyist*
 Initial return First registration of a consultant lobbyist, enterprise lobbyist or organization lobbyist	30 days after first conducting lobbying activities, to ensure that your initial return is made public	60 days after first conducting lobbying activities, to ensure that your initial return is made public
 Notice of change Registration of any change in the content of a return, including new lobbying activities	30 days after the change, to ensure that your notice of change is made public	30 days after the change, to ensure that your notice of change is made public
 Renewal Annual renewal of registration while mandates remain active	30 days after the anniversary of your initial registration, to ensure that your renewal is effective	60 days after the end of the financial year of your enterprise or organization, to ensure that your renewal is effective

* The senior officer of the enterprise or organization is responsible for registering enterprise lobbyists or organization lobbyists in the registry of lobbyists.

WATCH OUT, THE ACT INCLUDES PENALTIES!

The Act prescribes penalties for a failure to comply with the deadlines. The Québec Lobbyists Commissioner asks all lobbyists to pay particular attention to compliance with deadlines, which ensure that citizens can rely on transparency in the lobbying of public office holders.

www.commissairelobby.qc.ca
 commissaire@commissairelobby.qc.ca

Phone: 418 643-1959, extension 1
 Toll free: 1 866 281-4615